“ To the Didea family I send my condolences. Adam is a very cool guy and a good friend. Sorry to see he left this earth too soon. We all will miss him. I remember the all night RPG's we all did together at James Carprios house and also the time we all went to the comedy club together and Adam being a little buzzed decided to interact with the comedian and they messed with each other to the entertainment of the audience. That was a great night with great friends and a quality moment for us all. Adam had us all laughing so much going back and forth with that comedian. Good times!
