

Allan J. Quartaroli

January 1, 1947 - April 25, 2020

On Saturday, April 25, 2020, Allan Quartaroli passed away after battling cancer. He was 73 years old.

Allan was born on January 1, 1947 to Marie and Mereno Quartaroli. He is survived by his sister Lynn Lanfri, brother-in-law Leon Lanfri, nephew Eathon Lanfri and his wife Rosanna. He also had many other family members and friends.

Allan grew up in Niles, California where he had lots of fun. He was a gifted artist with a wealth of knowledge and had many masterful skills. He always shared his skills with others. There wasn't much he couldn't do! The one thing that he really loved doing was riding his Harley Angie. That gave him great pleasure!! Allan was a very witty guy which made him much fun to be with.

He will be missed!!

“ I kept praying for Allan to stop smoking but he was just stubborn. I wished he listened to god. This message is for god and Allen: could you get Lynn’s nephew a job at century 25 when it reopens?
