“ August 30th 2017 a man, an olympian, strategic leader, my grandfather passed away. He was the strong quiet type that in the last year shared stories, affection and experiences with me that I will never forget. He taught me more than he knew and was my best friend and I his when people didn't understand him. He taught me ethics, morality, integrity and that putting your back into everything you do specifically work is the most important. That money is nice, but not the only thing. Happiest when his 5 children and slew of grandchildren were in his home. I saw him every day of my life for 18 years and weekly for 14years. Good bye Lito, I will miss you very much. Walking into your house will never be the same again.
