“ Shukla & Family my condolences, I still remember he used to come at our place for katha and he used to read the same without the help of the book, he might have made it hard to learn the katha book. I really appreciate the same. I still have the very light image in my mind that he is reading the katha. Never forget such a great man... RIP....

“ Let us follow the word of Lord Krishna in Bhagvad Geeta, One who takes birth has to leave this world physically. Soul is immortal. May his pious soul rest in piece. Give moral courage to face this calamity.

“ Condolences from Rikhye Family India and USA. Dadaji was such a great person who spent his life in high dignity and respect for others and received the same for himself. I don't know if there is any person who will forget him ever only after meeting once. We are one person less in this world of his class and league.
