“ Charles and I met 1997/98. From the first day we met we were inseperable it was amazing how that missing piece just fit so naturally. I remember we sat and talked for hours that night not knowing what God had in store for us for the next 10+ years and a beautiful blessing of a daughter we named Haleigh Tiare Campbell. I remember Charles was always so serious when we first started dating and I was complete opposite always playing jokes and he used to get so mad with me to just be serious but he eventually came around thankfully. Charles was always a hard worker, so amazingly intelligent and one great dad! He loved his baby Haleigh and she was a daddy's girl for sure. There is nothing that he wouldn't do for her! Just recently during phone conversation he was laughing so hard he told me" girl I am completely satisfied that everyday you wake up and you see our baby that you will always see me!" and I am so thankful for that. I told him she is like you Charles but with a wig.. God I have so many wonderful memories of this man that I could go on for days. I am thankful for my memories I am thankful for the times we have had and I am thankful for my cookie cutter image of him I am so blessed to see everyday down to his same laugh! I wish I had answers I wish I would have known I wish I had one more day to say everything I could have and should have said. I love you so much Charles and I am so sorry for everything! You will be forever missed and thought of daily. Thank you for the 10 years of you! Until we meet again! Rest in peace my love! Stephanie (sugar)
