“ She was truly one of the best people I knew. She never said an unkind word about anyone. She had a heart of gold. I loved to make her laugh. She was like my second mother. She will be missed terribly. I am so happy that have great memories of her and that gives me joy Love you Chris! ”

Chris & I became friends when I moved to Ca back in late 70,s.we lived in same apt building so we had our coffee talks & invited other neighbors.Chris introduced me to ride Bart to San Francisco where we had fun shopping & eating.We got along well & then I moved back East to Pa. but came back to Fremont for few years then moved back to Pa again but I did go on 2 trips to visit Chris & Jeff again but as time went on I couldn,t continue the trips as it was a long way but we did keep in touch not writing as much but I tried the telephone calls in fact it was just 9 days ago before Chris,s passing that we spoke on phone.I,m so saddened to know my friend is gone but to know that Chris & Jeff will be reunited as we all will.
