“ My Godfather was the most generous kind hearted man! Would give the shirt off his back to anyone at anytime! You could drive to his home on anyday at anytime and he would welcome you in to his home, happily! He would not let you leave empty handed either, he would send you home with something whether it be a picture, a stuffed animal or a hotwheel. Which i still have. My favorite was when he gave me a stuffed lion and we named him Clarence! He even gave me his expired Driver License which I have with some pictures of his old cherry red corvette in one of my photo albums. He has touched so many in his life. I will always remember him and all the wonderful times I was lucky enough to be in his presence! I am saddend to my core knowing I will not be able to see him here again. I do know that he is having a good time with his best friend in heaven, my mother Michele! I have faith that we will meet again. So with a heavy heart I'm sending my deepest condolences to the family he left behind. I will love you forever Nino!

With all my love,
Your Godchild, Denise Silva
