“ I will miss Uncle Dan's laugh. It would ignite any room he walked in to with joy and happiness. Any time he saw me, when I was a little girl up to when I was in my 20's and 30's, he'd come up to me, laughing, and say, "HEY JOSSY!" and give me a great big kiss on my cheek. His beard always scratched me and I'd smile because his love always felt so genuine and real. He was a special guy and will be greatly missed.

“ I remember papa and I would always make kool-aid together and he let me pour the sugar in. We would take turns tasting it.
