“ My father taught me to be self reliant, work hard, never give what you can't afford to loose. The most important was to never lock family out of your life. When God came into my life in 1996 I took my own path. When I returned to my father's house, He had been patiently waiting with open arms. We both now had something to share from that day on, For the last 20years Dad and I talked on the phone at least 4 times a week. Prior to Christmas I had done everything Dad Always expected of me. I was so excited to see him. Worked so hard, but he left me with one last responsibility. To carry out his will.. On this earth no greater reward could be handed down. I'm jus so blessed to have had a dad who is my best friend, but as independent as he made me, and I thought I was, I feel so alone. The world let's me down with its hate, anger, lies, appathy and greed. Dad always kept the door unlocked and his heart, I love you Dad. I hope to see you sooner than later. Your devoted loving son - Vinnie.

“ Dominic was my friend for over 40 years, when his e-mail bounced back, I knew something was wrong. He was one heck of a guy. I will really miss him.

“ We are missing you on our walks; we always looked forward to your smile. Your kindness towards all those around you made the world a little brighter place. Emma will miss the back scratches and the little tug on her tail you always stopped to give her. Our prayers and condolences are with your family. Bob, Melissa, and Emma
