“ I have known John and Karen for quite some time from when they lived in North Carolina. Last summer, though, I had the pleasure of meeting a few others within the Seipert family after years of hearing many, many stories of the loving, respectful, and genuine people Eldon and Barbara raised. I have never known such a large family that is more close knit and willing to help out one another on short notice. When I needed a ride from the airport to John and Karen's place, John's sister-in-law stepped up; when my fiancé needed a ride a few days later, Eldon came forward. Both happily welcomed us to the beautiful state of California and welcomed us back anytime before departing.

I am saddened to know that upon our next visit Eldon will not be there physically. However, I know he will be there in spirit, living on in the values and traditions he has passed on to his children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. Although we did not know him for very long or very well, we are certainly grieving with the entire Seipert family this weekend. A pure, genuine soul was lost to this world, but we can take solace in knowing he is now with his Heavenly Father.

With love always,
Cari (& Tim)
