“ Our seasons of life so short, and with loss, our hearts ache long for a familiar love now gone. This evening, if you cast your eyes up you may embrace the discovery of a new star. This new star has joined billions of others, forming a coverlet of majestic beauty and it thrives in the company of a humbling calm. This sweet serenity, a starlit night, will always be over you, she is there. Forever loved and shining bright.

“ "Kiss of the sun for pardon. Song of the birds for mirth. You're closer to God's heart in the garden than any place else on earth."
My fondest memory of Aunt Betty was at a birthday party for my mom held at my home. We talked about our love of gardening and she took some of my wisteria seeds to plant. She gave my mom a windchime as a present and I have it now that my mom has passed. Every time I see it hanging next to my wisteria tree I always think of Aunt Betty. She was a warm and loving person.

"God's Garden"

God looked around his garden
And found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth,
And saw your tired face.

He put His arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He always takes the best.
