“ I'm going thru my address book to prepare Christmas cards and wanted to send one to Gladys. I'm sorry to see that she has passed. Gladys watched our two sons when they were very small; Bryan and Nolan. She was a light in our whole family's life bringing joy and adventures for the boys and balm and sage advice for Rob and I.

“ I also knew Gladys from our AAUW book club. She was a sweet, yet no-nonsense lady, maybe her experience of being a principal shining through. Gladys was the epitome of courage and grace through the adversity of illness and that will be my best memory of her!

“ I met Gladys through Fremont American Association of University Women. We were in a book club together for several years, and sometimes I'd drive her to our meeting place. She was an exceptional person with an active mind and an endearing presence. I was very lucky to have known her and to have spent time with her.

My condolences to her family. She was so proud of you all and shared different stories about your adventures with me.

Sincerely, Kris Sandoe of Niles, CA
