“ Jesse, Jesus was waiting for you to play music with my Sister Marcie. You were a special gift when you played music. My best memories are hearing you play music and that child like smile you had on your face. God bless all your family. I will never forget you. You will always be in my prayers.

“ Jesse,
My friend who was there for me when I most needed a friend. You became my "garage sale" partner. Boy, did we get some good stuff and we smiled every time we did too! Jesse, I will always remember your music, your laughter and understanding. You leave many friends and family who will always remember you as the kind man that you are. My thoughts of peace are with you and your family.

“ I just found out that Jesse Robledo passed away. It saddens my heart and my condolences go out to his family. Musicians are blessed with music. Jesse was blessed with his tejano music that's for sure. I admired his guitar playing and I know he was an inspiration to many. May Jesus take him in his arms to that great choir in heaven where the ambience sounds of angels sing in praise and glory Amen.

“ Jesse you were always a great friend and I'll never forget when we were roommates we had such good times and you always had me laughing, you were like the brother I never had. I will miss you so much, I'll miss your music, you were a great musician. So many of your friends will always remember you as will I. I know GOD received you with open arms and now your playing in the heavens, your playing again that I know gives you so much joy. Love you and will miss you so much. Till we see each other again.
