“ Josefina I got to know you being a long time friend of oscar. I have gotten close to the family i called you mom. A beautiful woman a beautiful person so wise, witty full of wisdom, smart and funny. You have said funny things that I will always remember like "you must owe a bill thats why you were still here." "The other one was there is no cure for old. " Nobody stops to think about it but how true that is. It wasn't until I saw the whole picture of what made you beautiful inside and out . i was mesmerized about how beautiful you were and with such dignity and grace. I miss you already and I am so sorry you handle exscrutiating pain being strong and never complained. Your bill was paid and no cure for old. Your resting now gracefully and with dignity so beautiful I will never forget you. Thank you for accepting me and treating me like family. I love you Mom!

Forever,
Della
