“ I never met Joe face to face, but worked for him and his clients. In a business world that is 'all business', and among the thousands of people we work for, only Joe had the manners and took the time to make each conversation personal. He was hands down the favorite among our secretaries. What a gentleman! And if he was that kind to strangers, I can only imagine what his family is enduring. So our sincerest wishes for your hearts to heal; he touched our as well. May peace fill you and gentle smiles replace the tears, as fond memories are recalled.

but those who care and share your loss, are praying for you. We are asking God to bring strength to move through the next days and weeks with the knowledge that there are those of us that would love to help bear
