“ I remember, when I was little, my grandma and I would climb up the hill a little ways up from our house in Velas to pick herbs to make tea or soup. We had a great view of Pico and Faial. We'd also go to mass every morning which I loved. We'd stop by the park near the church that had all these birds in this large cage. It was a simpler life. We didn't have much but it was a less stressful and happier life as well. Memories like these fill my heart with much joy, love and happiness. Rest in peace my dearest grandmother. Until we see one another again. 🌹❤️🌹❤️🌹
