“ Stopped at Chapel of the Chimes to visit by old friend Billy whom I met in 1996. My heart sank when I noticed Elaine was next to him and has joined her beloved husband Ivan. We lost touch over the years but I always remember the great times we shared. She was a great mother and grandmother and friend. I will always remember the fun times with her. You will be missed by everyone who had the honor of you calling them your friend and invited them to share a part of your life. You are safe in God's arms. Love Thom and Alan.
