

Marion Edna O'Leary

October 22, 1928 - March 17, 2018

A life of love, family, prayer, and service. A mother who passed on her love, wisdom and personality. A loving wife of Patrick; wonderful mother to Michael and Timothy; adoring grandmother of Krystalyn, Jay, Jesse, James, Jerome, Nikki and Ian. Caring daughter of Edward and Marie Gutierrez; sister of Camilla, Albert and Mae. An affectionate great-grandmother to ten beautiful children who were real joys in her life.

Marion was a warm and tireless wife, mother, matriarch, friend to countless people who benefitted from her immeasurable energy, help and love. She always has a zest for life and a cheerful twinkle in her eye even in challenging times. She truly enjoyed her orchids, roses and gardening. Marion was an avid San Francisco Giants fan as well as a deeply faithful Catholic devoted to Padre Pio and Pope John Paul II. Marion's professional and domestic skills were unparalleled - she kept BART's electrical shop in order for years as well as being an accomplished cook and seamstress. Her love for each person was evident from her warm enthusiasm and welcoming manner.

“ My condolences to the O’Leary family. Marion is my daughter’s Nikki grandmother. Marion was an awesome woman. She was fiercely protective of her sons and their children. She loved life and loved family gatherings. Marion made the best bread pudding and fig jam. I am very sad that she isn’t here on earth with us but I am at peace because I know she is with Jesus and she is at peace. Love you Marion.
