“ Auntie Mary would have loved the outpouring of sentiments we've received on her behalf. She was like a child and viewed life through those eyes. All this attention would have overwhelmed her and inflated her self-regard. Thank you sooo much!

Auntie Mary Ann...
Not a birthday of family/friends did she ever forget,
Not a Novela she didn't become personally invested in,
Not a night she would miss saying her prayers,
Not a new acquaintance she would/could shy away from,
Not a situation she saw from adult-tainted eyes.
I will miss her jolly giggles and ability to remind me...just how funny life can be when you choose to look at it through child-like eyes!
I am sad for our loss, but happy she is with grandma and grandpa again!
