Mary Margarita Magliotto Ferrario was born in San Leandro, grew up in San Lorenzo and graduated from Hayward High School. And she spent countless hours doing advocacy work for her disabled brother, regularly traveling to the Sonoma Developmental Center for meetings and visits.

She loved working in her garden, making homemade ravioli and canning fresh fruit and tomato sauce. Into her 70's, she routinely won the 4th of July nail-driving contest at Ardenwood Historic Farm in Fremont.
