“ Oh My Beautiful Bre, I have stared at this posting for awhile now shocked and devastated. There are SO many wonderful things to say about your Mom that I am actually at a loss for the right words. The one thing I can say is that she loved you SOOOO much, through thick and thin Sissy, you were everything to her. She was so proud of you in everything you did. I love you Breezy girl. Big hugs honey,

Sissy

“ Pam, you were always so kind. You were very welcoming with all the parties you and Mark gave years ago. Your a very loving mom, and friend. You will be missed greatly, but never forgotten..
You are now a angel in heaven as you were on earth.
Rest in peace and spread your wings..

“ I'm thankful for the many wonderful memories of years of gatherings where Pam made sure everyone felt at home and had a good time. That's the spirit of someone who cares for their friends and family deeply.

When you came into your personal power there was no stopping you. A loving mom, wife, business woman and a great friend.

Rest well dear lady, until we meet again

“ Many memories of Pam flood me now. Our gatherings at the Florence and your lovely home in Newark. Our shopping excursion at the flea markets with your Venti size coffee from Starbucks! I remember when the first one in Fremont opened on Mowry and you were so excited about that. I'm glad we got to reconnect on FB the last few years. I know your daughter Brianna was your light as you spoke so fondly of her always! GOD has called you home.....it must feel great to be with your mom again!!! You will be missed Pam!

“ I remember so many good times at the ranch with Pam and Wayne Glen darling and the rest of the family...Pam was so adorable with her blue eyes and blonde hair..just lately we reconnected on Facebook and it saddens me that we didn't get to visit each other before she left this earth...and it also saddens me that she left at such an early age..my heart goes out to you Brianna but just know that someday you will meet up with her again...God bless you, and rest in peace....

“ My mom and I had many ups, and many downs. But even when I didn't deserve it, she would still be there for me. My mom had a big heart, especially when it came to her animals. She was such a fighter...she stood tall, even though she was only 4'11" lol. I love my mom a lot, and miss her so much. One day I'll see you again, but until we do, I hope you're enjoying the gossip and catch-up with Nana.

“ I remember one of the times we were chatting, Pam was bound and determined to find these jeans, but she couldn't find the mall. I live in Ohio mind you, but got on google maps, and after I swear at least 45 minutes, we got her there. It was so funny. We had many a laughs about her babies, especially her new addition, Izzy. That dog made her so happy. My prayers are with you Bre. Your Mom was a very special person. She would give the shirt off her back to help anyone that needed it, even if it meant her going without. She will be missed, but I know she is with the Angels now.
