“ Rajni was my beloved and most cherished brother. We have many memories of our childhood and growing up years together until my married life separated us . But our love for each other never dismissed. He was so handsome , fair, and good looking in his days, that all young girls used to chase him. At one time, a princess of some state wanted to marry him- of course this was in his teens. I will miss him always , but I know he needed this rest and so the lord has brought him home now. - his loving sister- Shobhna
