“ Uncle Ralph, I have a lifetime of memories of you as my Dad and Kathy took me, then later Mark and Craig, to visit you in California what seems like every other year and you and Aunt Maryann brought your kids to visit Grandma and Grandpa and the rest of us here in Denver. We went to the mountains when you were here. We went to the ocean and Candlestick Park to see Willie Mays play for the SF Giants when we were there. You were always funny and kind to all of us and a daily walking companion for my Dad and Kath when you moved to Reno. My Dad did not want to leave you when they moved back home. You knew you would not see him again. I will never forget the story of you and your brothers peeing on Great Grandpa Stevens head from upstairs. And how his father never said a word to you boys. When Abe and I visited you last in assisted living you did not know us. I am glad you are free of that disease. We will miss you. Say hello to Maryann, Grandma and Grandpa, my Dad and Kathy. We always loved you. Until we meet again dear Uncle.
