Gina you have a heart just like your daddy's ,take comfort in knowing that u were with him till the end cause he knows you were there. You have his blood flowing throu ur vains so you will always walk around with him right there with you baby. I so wish u could be there for you honey , but you have a living family and wonderful friends that will help you through this. Sending condolences to u n the whole Altstatt family. I love you Gina. RIP RICK you are loved and will be missed immensely
