

Richard Arsenio Salangsang

December 6, 1961 - December 5, 2020

On Dec 5, 2020 Richard Arsenio Salangsang age 58 passed away in his childhood home in Fremont, CA after suffering for almost 2yrs from complication of a stroke.

Rick was born at Washington Hospital in Fremont, Dec 6, 1961. He lived most of his life in Fremont and Hayward. Rick was an accomplished Iron Worker for over 15yrs, was also published in the San Francisco Chronicle and National Geographic for his help in the design of the earthquake proofing isolators in the Oakland City Hall. However, his real passion was being a mechanic, if it had wheels he could fix it. He had his own auto shop in Hayward for a while. Rick enjoyed riding his Harley, fishing, cooking, playing the harmonica and listening to music.

Rick was preceded in death by his mother Elaine (Johnson) Salangsang his father Romeo Mar Salangsang and brother Romeo Jr. He is survived by his son Arsenio Salangsang, daughters Raina McVey, Nadine DelaRosa and Juanita Balcita, sisters Michelle Salangsang and Midge Benavidez and many nieces and nephews, 5 grandchildren and 3 great-grandchildren.

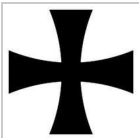

Rick is being cremated and there will be no services at this time because of the Pandemic.

“ Bro,Bro, I'm so happy that I got to spend some happy times with you after John passed away. I know you came to take care of me and you did for awhile. Me and Michelle would have taken care of you forever, but that is not a life you wanted. "Your the end of the rainbow" Love You, Midge
