“ We were so fortunate to have spent Thanksgiving with Bob, he was so strong sitting at the recliner, watching football. Thank you Laurin, Kyle and Ryan for inviting us to be with all of you. I knew Bob was a kind hearted, devote man from the very moment he attended my father's funeral service in 2017 at St. Bernard's Catholic Church. Bob did not know our family quite well yet since we just met the Toegemanns through Kyle and Ali's marriage. But Bob totally touched my heart that he was willing to attend and support me and my family at my dad's service, even though he did not even get to know my dad at all. I will never forget Bob's presence during one of the hardest times of my life. Now I bid him well and the glory of being at home, in peace, in heaven. Thank you for giving us the opportunity of seeing your smiling, laughing nature, and most importantly showing us your love for our Lord. Laurin, Kyle and Ryan, God bless you and you will always have Bob's love, laughter and joy forever.

Love,
The Pineo Family
