“ I learnt to know Scott two years ago at the stock forum Seeking Alpha. We became good friends and we learned a lot about the places we live in from each other.

Almost one year ago I asked him to work with me. I live in Sweden and I was asked to write texts in English about air conditioning for a big international company. I knew I couldn't do that on my own, I needed someone who was native English speaking and also knew about tech. Scott was perfect for that and we worked really well together. I trusted his knowledge and it was easy and fun to work with him.

Even though I never met him, I have lost a good friend and the best job partner.

*I hope that you are now free to fly as much as you wish, Scott.
I will miss you.*
