

Tru Van Nguyen

August 7, 1932 - January 24, 2015

Our beloved husband, father, grandfather passed away on January 24, 2015. He was born in Vietnam on August 7, 1932. He brought his entire family to the United States of America in February 1983. After he immigrated to the States he went to school to learn English so he can be a productive citizen and find a job to support his family. He worked at the Post Office in Oakland and was a very dedicated and loyal employee. He worked very hard and with his determination he was able to provide for his family and created opportunities for his three loving daughters who are now professionals working at Trion Worlds, San Francisco St. Mary Hospital, and LinkedIn. He is a loving person, caring husband, perfect father, and wonderful grandfather. He is survived by his wife: Hanh Ngoc Trinh; three daughters: Ha Ngoc Nguyen (Cindy Nguyen) and her husband Tuan Manh Tran, Thanh Nguyen (Katrina Nguyen), and Tuyet Nguyen; two granddaughters: Trang Thuy Tran (Theresa Tran), and Nhi Thuy Tran (Emily Tran); and one grandson: Huy Duc Ly (Kaden Ly).

“ My heart went out with all of you, the loved ones of uncle Tru Van Nguyen for the lost of your husband, father, and grandfather. As in Buddha's words "life comes and goes in a circle", ending of this is at beginning of the other. May God bless you, uncle Tru, in your next journey.
Tan Khuong, a co-worker at USPS

“ Truly sorry to hear the loss of uncle Tru Nguyen. Please accept our condolences and may our prayers help comfort you and hasten the journey of his soul to Heaven. A person departs from this earth never trully leaves, so uncle Tru Nguyen is still alive in our hearts and minds, through us, he lives on, he will not be forgotten.
